

New Book Information from Bouley Bay Books

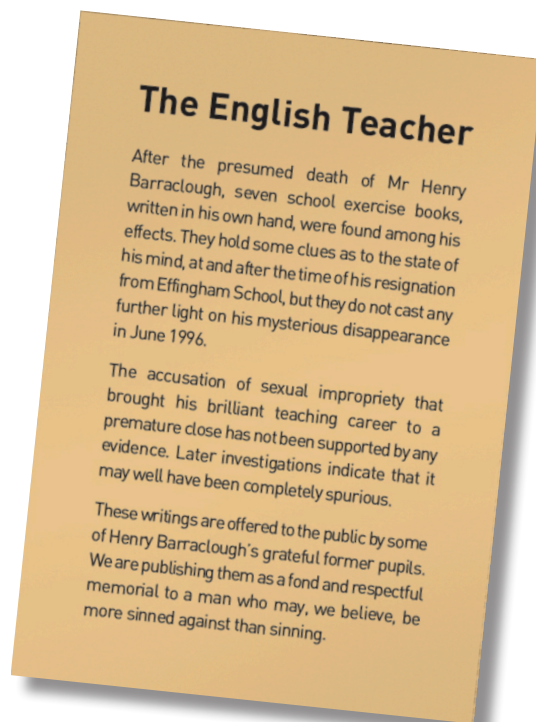

The English Teacher by Mick Le Moignan.

Storyline: The central character and narrator is Henry Barraclough, recently retired as Head of English at a British public school. Enraged at what he sees as his unfair treatment by the school, he uses seven leftover exercise books to tell his side of the story. It is a brutally honest account of an intensely sexual, secret love affair that destroys his career and potentially his life.

About the author: Mick Le Moignan studied English at Cambridge University and has written in almost every format. For Corroborree Films and ABC-TV, he produced documentaries about the contemporary life and culture of First Nations Australians. In the UK, he made 100+ programs for BBC-TV and was story and script editor on the long-running, popular drama series, Eastenders and The Bill. Moving back to academia, he worked with Stephen Hawking to secure funding for the Hawking Building at Gonville & Caius College, Cambridge and returned to Australia in 2009 to fundraise for the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

The English Teacher is his first novel.

The English Teacher

Novel in English

Format: Paperback

Published: 2020

Extent: 260 pages

Size: 234mm x 156mm

Print ISBN: 978-0-6450566-0-0

eBook ISBN: 978-0-6450566-1-7

Retail price: A$29.95 (trade discount applies)

Order from: IngramSpark (www.ingramspark.com)

Or from: Bouley Bay Books (MLM444@gmail.com)
bouleybaybooks.com

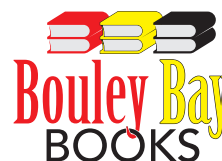

9780645056600

Upcoming Publicity

Local Book Launches tba after NSW Lockdown

Author Q&A Pittwater Life Oct 2021

Bouley Bay Books is a new, privately-owned publishing company on Sydney's Northern Beaches. The first two books are available now. We plan to publish 3-4 new titles a year by local authors.